There will be a raffle and silent auction, plus entertainment the entire evening, all in our air conditioned hall!

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

When you think of a king coming before his people, the image of someone riding on a donkey does not come to mind. If the Lone Ranger had Silver and Roy Rogers had Trigger, a similar white stallion would seem most fitting for a king. Not an ass, even a purebred one. But this image from the prophet Zechariah is one that must have planted itself in the imagination of Jesus, for that is how he made his great entrance into Jerusalem and was greeted as the Messiah. It was not the entrance of a powerful warrior, but of a gentle king whose rule would bring peace to the nations.

I have sometimes regretted the loss of St. Christopher from the calendar of saints. That legendary saint, whose name means "Christ-bearer," signaled that the risen Lord had now chosen to be carried by his disciples. We bear him in our bodies, minds, and hearts. We bring him to the world when we work to bring peace and healing and knowledge of the Father.

This necessitates being willing to take on the yoke of Jesus. I remember once hearing that the yokes Jesus made in the carpenter shop under Joseph's guidance rode easily on the shoulders of the animals, distributing evenly the weight they pulled. The yoke Jesus offers us is his teaching about the kingdom of heaven and how to live in it while in the world. This means putting on his attitude and spirit of attentive listening for the will of the Father—home schooling in the best sense.

REFLEXIONEMOS SOBRE LA PALABRA DE DIOS

Cuando uno se imagina a un rey que viaja para visitar a su pueblo nunca nos lo imaginamos montado en un burro. Si el Llanero Solitario tenía a Silver y Roy Rogers tenía a Trigger, un caballo blanco de paso fino sería lo más apropiado para un rey y no un burro, aunque éste fuese de purasangre. Pero esta imagen del profeta Zacarías debió haberse clavado en la imaginación de Jesús, pues así fue como hizo su entrada triunfal en Jerusalén donde lo recibieron como el Mesías. No fue la entrada de un guerrero poderoso, sino la de un rey amable, cuya ley traería la paz a las naciones.

Algunas veces me lamento de que se haya quitado a san Cristóbal del santoral católico. Ese santo legendario, cuyo nombre significa “el que lleva a Cristo consigo”, decía que el Señor resucitado había querido que sus discípulos lo llevaran consigo. Lo llevamos en nuestro cuerpo, en nuestra mente y en nuestro corazón. Lo llevamos al mundo cuando trabajamos por la paz y la reconciliación, y para que llegue a conocer al Padre.

Esto necesita nuestra voluntad de cargar el yugo de Jesús. Recuerdo haber escuchado una vez que los yugos que Jesús hizo en la carpintería bajo el asesoramiento de José eran fáciles de colocar sobre el cuello de los animales, para distribuir equitativamente el peso que arrastraban. El yugo que nos ofrece Jesús es su enseñanza acerca del reino de los cielos y cómo vivir en ese reino mientras estamos en el mundo. Eso significa revestirnos de la actitud de Jesús y de su espíritu de escucha atenta para conocer la voluntad del Padre. Eso es aprender dentro de la misma familia.
